

OKI Bering Privacy Notice

Scope

This statement applies to websites operated by or on behalf of OKI Bering and its affiliated companies or subsidiaries.

Information

OKI Bering receives and stores certain types of information whenever you interact with us, including any information you enter on our website. This information includes your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address and credit card information. We also collect certain non-personally identifiable information when your web browser accesses the OKI Bering website as part of the standard operation of our server by using Cookie Technology. This technology does not personally identify you or extract any information from your computer. Rather, Cookie Technology is used to measure and monitor the use of our website. The information Cookie Technology may collect include: the name of your Internet service provider, the date and time you accessed our website, the Internet address of the website from which you entered our website, and which website you go to after you leave our website. Information that would personally identify you is known only when voluntarily submitted.

Uses

The OKI Bering website is primarily intended for use by our Authorized Distributors. We use any information you provide only for purposes consistent with the reason you provided it. We use all information received to provide you a customized interactive experience, improve our website and to continuously improve our quality of service. OKI Bering does not sell, rent, give or otherwise disclose any personally identifying customer information to third parties. We only release information: (i) when required by law, (ii) in order to enforce our Terms and Conditions for use of OKI Bering's website or (iii) to protect the rights of OKI Bering and its affiliated companies or subsidiaries. Your visit to the OKI Bering website is subject to this Privacy Notice and said Terms and Conditions.

Security

OKI Bering is committed to keeping all information secure. We utilize software and technology specifically designed to keep your information secure. We employ technical, administrative and physical procedures to protect information from loss, misuse or alteration. We limit access to information to individuals who have a business need to access the information. It is important for you to keep your Login ID and Password secure and to protect from unauthorized access by terminating your session by logging off. While OKI Bering takes strong security measures to protect information passed between our website and your computer, we can not guarantee all electronic transmissions of data is totally secure.
